

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE

Why use Clickcover for your PI insurance?

Professional Indemnity is a vital protection for you covering your defence costs and any resulting damages awarded against you resulting from claims of "negligence" made against you by a dissatisfied customer.

It is worth remembering that this insurance will cover you even if the allegations made against you are not true. In today's world any provider of professional services, particularly those with limited company status, can be exposed to claims alleging negligence.

Benefits may include

- » Upto £20million (and more if needed) in defence costs and any resulting damages awarded against you resulting from claims of "negligence"
- » Loss of data
- » Dishonesty of your employees
- » Breach of contract resulting from any neglect, error or omission
- » Unintentional breach
- » Infringement or unauthorised use of intellectual property / Libel and slander

We are able to offer quotations with all major insurance companies, plus the various insurers at Lloyds. Once we have the information from you a quotation can be delivered very efficiently in a timescale that suits you.

This particular insurance is reliant on the completion of a proposal form, however we should be able to use your previous proposal form noting any changes necessary.

Professions Covered

Due to the number of Insurers available to us, we are confident that whatever your profession is, we can deliver a competitive solution to you.
